

TULSA TOURS

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 30

Bus leaves at 8 a.m. Returns at 4:30 p.m. Men also welcome.

Tulsa Attractions

Riverside Drive/bronze statues; Cathedral Square, Art Deco buildings; Greenwood area (site of 1921 race riot); ONEOK stadium (new Tulsa Drillers baseball park); BOK (Bank of Oklahoma) event center; Maple Ridge (known as Silk Stocking Row or Black Gold Row - oil barons' homes); Tulsa Historical Society; Boston Avenue Methodist Church (largest Art Deco building in the world) and more

Gilcrease Museum

The world's most comprehensive collection of American Indian and Western art, docent-led tours.

Dink's BBQ in Bartlesville for lunch.

Woolaroc (Woods, Land and Rock) Museum in Bartlesville.

Frank Phillips' (Phillips 66 oilman) country home. Museum contains Western art, artifacts and cultural history, wildlife preserve with 3,600+ acres and more than 30 varieties of animals and birds.

Price per person: $76

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 1

Bus leaves at 9:15 a.m. and returns at approximately 4 p.m.

Ladies Breakfast (7:30 a.m. Madrid Room I) Marian Clark, author of The Route 66 Cookbook, The Main Street of America Cookbook, the Southwestern Heritage Cookbook and co-author with Michael Wallis of Hogs on 66.

A passion for food and a love affair with Route 66 led Clark to her first journey of discovery along the historic highway between Chicago and Santa Monica almost 15 years ago. On the way, she rediscovered many of the famous and not-so-famous eateries along America's Main Street.

Amish Experience (in Choteau, about 45 minutes east of Tulsa)

Amish Cheese House: samples of various jellies, dips, etc. Many gift items, including nuts, candies, spices, pastas, cheese, cookbooks and a bakery. Amish Handcrafted Furniture store.

Fannie's Country Cooking.

Lunch, served family style.

Buggy Rides.

Will Rogers Museum, Claremore.

Will Rogers' gravesite, memorabilia, films, gift shop and archives. For those who choose to shop instead, a stop can be made downtown for antique malls, flea market mall, and small specialty shops.

Price per person: $66

Colt Collector's Show Tulsa Tours, September 30 - October 1, 2010

Name _____ Email _____

Telephone _____ Fax: _____

Address _____

	# of guests	Total
Tulsa City Tour, Gilcrease Museum, Woolaroc	$76.00 x _____	= _____

Amish Experience, Choteau
Will Rogers Memorial or shopping in Claremore

lunch with one meat $66.00 x _____ = _____

lunch with two meats $66.00 x _____ = _____

Please indicate any special dietary needs _____

Please return this form along with payment no later than September 24. Tours are first-come, first-served.
Make checks payable to CCA and mail to Susie House, 218 Country Wood, San Antonio, TX 78216.
Questions or concerns should be directed to her at 210-490-2433 or cowgirlhouse@aol.com

No refunds will be made after September 1, 2010.

Attention Ladies !! (Men: please pass this on to your significant other.)

Ladies Only! Continental Breakfast

Make plans to join us on Friday morning at 7:30 a.m.

for our free continental breakfast in the Madrid Room I.

It's a perfect time to catch up with old friends and of course, a great way to welcome all our new guests. Hope to see you there! (No reservations required)

Ladies Raffle Baskets

Don't forget about our ever-popular raffle baskets!

Due to the generosity of the Colt Ladies, we assemble wonderful and varied baskets. But we can't do it without your help year so don't forget to bring your items with you.

As always, proceeds from the ticket sales go to a good cause.

The winning tickets will be drawn at Saturday's banquet.

Thanks to Diane Erdmann and Phylis Kramer
for all their hard work as Ladies Basket Coordinators.

Information is also available on our website www.coltcollectors.com